

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE PROVISION OF SERVICES
SIQ Conformity Assessment Africa, (Pty) Ltd, ("SIQ Africa")
Unit C4, Micro Industrial Park, 17-19 Hammer Ave, Strydom Park, 2194 Randburg

1 VALIDITY OF GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These General Terms and Conditions are applicable to all business relationships between SIQ Africa and customers of SIQ Africa services, unless otherwise agreed in writing or specified in Special Terms and Conditions of individual SIQ Africa departments.

2 PRICES AND EXPENSES

SIQ Africa shall charge the applicant for the provided service and for the expenses associated with it.

The price for the service shall be defined on the basis of:

- a) the time needed for the provision of the service, taking into consideration the price per hour according to the SIQ Africa price list or otherwise agreed price per hour; or
- b) the price for the service according to the SIQ Africa price list or otherwise agreed price for the service.

The above stated price items are not inclusive of VAT, travel or transport expenses (e.g. delivering and keeping of samples, delivering of documentation, customs duties, transportation), or expenses associated with the work by third parties or with goods supplied by third parties.

The agreed price per hour or for a service shall be applied only if confirmed in writing. If a written agreement on the price does not exist, the prices defined in the SIQ Africa price list shall be applied.

When the price for the service is calculated on the basis of the time spent, this is done after the service is completed, except in the case of a long-term project, when the calculation is done monthly for a previous month.

If the provision of the service requires a business trip, the hours spent on a business trip shall be included in the overall time needed to provide the service.

3 UNFORESEEN ADDITIONAL WORK OR REPETITIONS

In the case of unforeseen additional work or when the entire or part of the service need to be repeated due to the nature of the object of the service, the price shall be defined on the basis of a written agreement concluded between SIQ Africa and the applicant (unforeseen additional work).

4 VALIDITY OF THE QUOTE OR PRO-FORMA INVOICE

SIQ Africa is bound by the quote for the period stated in the quote or pro-forma invoice. If the validity period is not stated there-in, it shall be considered that the validity period of the offer or pro-forma invoice is 30 days.

5 ORDER CONFIRMATION

The agreement on the provision of a service shall apply when either the applicant confirms in writing the valid SIQ Africa offer or SIQ Africa confirms the applicant's order in writing, or if the circumstances indicate that the order has been confirmed by SIQ Africa, or the application form is signed by both parties.

6 CANCELLATION OR SUSPENSION OF THE ORDER

In the event of the cancellation of the order by the applicant, the applicant is liable to pay for the expenses of the work carried out prior to the cancellation and for any other expenses directly arising from the cancellation of the order itself.

A suspension of an order extending beyond a six-month period shall be considered as a cancellation of the order. The suspension of the order shall be deemed to commence on the day the applicant informs SIQ Africa in writing of the suspension of the order. If SIQ Africa is not informed of the suspension in writing, it shall be deemed that the suspension of the order commences on the day SIQ Africa hands over or sends to the applicant a written statement of the suspension. An order shall be deemed suspended also if the applicant fails to respond to letters or messages sent by SIQ Africa to the address stated in the applicant's order/application.

7 IMPRACTICABILITY OF A SERVICE

In the event SIQ Africa cannot fulfil the order in its entirety due to the nature of the object of the testing / inspection / calibration / verification / audit (e.g. non-conforming product or system, defective measuring instrument etc.), it is entitled to the reimbursement of the expenses for the work already carried out.

8 USE OF DOCUMENTS

The applicant and third parties may use SIQ Africa documents only for their intended purpose and in their entirety. SIQ Africa may use the results/findings of its work purely for research purposes and to this end publish them without disclosing the identity of the applicant or product. SIQ Africa shall not use the received applicant's documents or products other than for the intended purposes.

9 REPORTING, INFORMING

SIQ Africa shall respect the principles of business confidentiality of data acquired during the service implementation procedures.

If the communication of confidential data is required by applicable law, by a court order or governmental agency, SIQ Africa shall transmit confidential data to official supervisory authorities within the powers conferred to them by the state. SIQ Africa shall immediately notify the customer about such a request and cooperate with the customer to maintain such data in confidence.

SIQ Africa has the right to publish the information that the applicant's products were tested and certified by SIQ Africa in SIQ Africa publications unless this is prohibited by the applicant in writing.

10 PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

Personal data obtained in the context of legitimate performance of activities (by means of web forms, business cards, demands, fairs, conferences, etc.) shall be used only for the purposes for which they have been collected. Personal data shall be used for e-mail information purposes based on prior consent of the owner of the personal data or a legitimate interest. Since customer feedback is of great help to us in ensuring quality services, after the service has been provided, we invite the applicants to complete a questionnaire or provide their feedback. Completing a questionnaire is voluntary and does not require the applicant's consent.

11 LIABILITY

SIQ Africa is liable to the applicant for the damage due to error. SIQ Africa shall not be held responsible for the work not conducted by SIQ Africa or without SIQ Africa surveillance. SIQ Africa shall not be liable for the damage due to the applicant's unintended use of testing/certification related solutions, research, data or statements. The applicant shall notify SIQ Africa of the error in the effected order in 15 days from the date of the order fulfilment. The notification shall be deemed timely also in the event the applicant files a complaint due to error in 15 days after the issue of the invoice by SIQ Africa.

12 FORCE MAJEURE

SIQ Africa shall not be liable for the damage caused by conditions that could not be prevented or avoided or by conditions beyond SIQ Africa's control. The following events shall be considered as force majeure: wars, riots or other major upheaval, natural disasters (fire, floods and the like), unauthorised manifestations or demonstrations, administrative measures and other conditions laid down in applicable regulations.

13 SUBCONTRACTING

SIQ Africa may subcontract part of the work ordered to its parent company SIQ Ljubljana or to any of the subsidiaries of SIQ Ljubljana that are properly qualified to carry out this type of work. SIQ Africa shall take full responsibility for confidentiality and quality of service and shall be liable for the services provided as specified in paragraphs 11 and 12.

If SIQ Africa plans to use any other subcontractor, it shall (a) ensure that the subcontractor meets all relevant qualification criteria, (b) inform the client and seek its prior approval and (c) in the report clearly specify the part of the work that has been subcontracted.

14 TURNAROUND TIME

A completion date depends on the complexity and scope of the order and available capacities at SIQ Africa. The order completion date shall be agreed upon by the contracting parties when concluding the agreement. The order completion date period shall be calculated from the date on which all SIQ Africa conditions for the provision of ordered services are fulfilled.

15 TERMS OF PAYMENT

If SIQ Africa and the applicant have not agreed on the payment of the invoice after the provision of the ordered services, the payment of the ordered services should be made in advance within the time period stated on the issued pro-forma invoice. After the completion of the work, the expenses are re-evaluated. The applicant shall settle the debited amount within 15 days after the receipt of the invoice. If the advanced payment is too high, the overpayment shall be used for the settlement of subsequent orders, or refunded within 15 days after the receipt of the applicant's credit memo. The day when the amount is transferred to the SIQ Africa bank account shall be considered as the day of payment. If the applicant disagrees with the amount charged, it shall settle the non-disputed amount and inform SIQ Africa in writing of the reasons for the non-payment of the disputed amount. If the payment is not made by due date, SIQ Africa may charge legitimate overdue interests. If the applicant fails to pay the interests, the paid amount shall serve to cover the interests first and then a part of the charged fee.

If not agreed otherwise, the applicant receives a report on the service provided and other issued documents after the payment of all outstanding liabilities.

16 WITHDRAWAL FROM A CONTRACT

If it has been agreed that SIQ Africa shall be the first to fulfil its obligations and the applicant's financial situation changes in such a way that it becomes precarious whether the applicant will be able to fulfil its financial obligations, SIQ Africa may require from the applicant an advance payment of liabilities. If the applicant fails to do that within eight days from the issue of the request for advance payment, SIQ Africa may withdraw from a contract.

17 DISPUTES

Any disputes of professional-technical nature shall be settled in cooperation between the applicant's designated technical staff and SIQ Africa. If for some reason dispute or complaint of professional-technical nature cannot be solved in direct communication with the head of testing, it shall be reviewed by the general manager and at the highest level by the director. Any other dispute related to this submission that cannot be settled in an amicable way shall be resolved by the competent court in the Republic of South Africa. The legislation of the Republic of South Africa shall be applied.

18 FINAL PROVISIONS

Any issues not regulated with these Terms and Conditions shall be subject to the provisions of the applicable rules.

These General Terms and Conditions shall be binding only if submitted to the applicant before the agreement is concluded. SIQ Africa shall submit these Terms and Conditions together with the offer or notification of the acceptance of the order. In the case of any subsequent business agreements, these Terms and Conditions shall not be again enclosed to the agreement but it shall be deemed that the applicant is familiar with them.

In the case of any subsequent business agreements, the terms and conditions shall be submitted to the applicant only if changes have been introduced to them at some point between the previous and current business agreement with the applicant.
